Fuel Cost

55.47 miles away from my residence at 5960 Sunridge Dr, Cincinnati OH 45224.

Round trip totaling 110.94 once a week for 12 weeks, also including the meetings scheduled with Mr. Evans (2 total), my advisors Dan and Char (3 total), as well as Ms. Bevelhymmer and Mr. Munch (1). There were also miscellaneous trips I had to make due to the petitions I hand delivered during the semester I was enrolled, which totaled 2 additional trips.

20 total round trips at 110.94 miles = 2,218.8 miles traveled during the time I was allowed to attend the University.

The national average at that time, according to AAA Monthly Gas Price Report (<http://newsroom.aaa.com/2013/01/aaa-monthly-gas-price-report-january-2013-trends-and-february-outlook/>), the national average was $3.32/gallon.

At the time, I owned a 1994 Toyota Corolla, which got an estimated 27 miles per gallon, according to fueleconomy.gov; (http://www.fueleconomy.gov/feg/bymodel/1994_Toyota_Corolla.shtml).

So $2,218.8 \text{ miles} / 27 \text{ miles} = 82.18$ gallons of gasoline.

82.18 gallons multiplied by the $3.32 average of gasoline per gallon totals $272.84 in fuel costs.

Graduate Policies and Procedures Manual

1.00 Admission

The admission of graduate students to Wright State University is determined by a program graduate committee and/or the School of Graduate Studies.

Throughout this manual, the term "program" is used to designate the appropriate academic unit administering the degree. While generally equivalent to an academic department, in several instances (e.g., College of Business and Administration and College of Nursing and Health) it means the college or school. In the case of interdisciplinary programs, involving several departments and/or colleges (e.g., the Ph.D. in Biomedical Sciences or the M.Hum. in Humanities), it refers to a program faculty led by a program director. Applications to the School of Medicine's Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) program and the School of Professional Psychology's Doctor of Psychology (Psy.D.) program are conducted between the applicant and the respective school. All other actions pertaining to admission to graduate programs should be addressed to the School of Graduate Studies.

Graduate Policies and Procedures Manual

1.20 General Requirements for Admission

1.21

Applicants must submit official documentation as evidence of meeting the following Graduate School admission requirements. Programs may have requirements over and above those of the Graduate School.

A. Completion of a bachelor's degree program at an appropriately accredited academic institution or at an academic institution with high academic standards deemed appropriate and acceptable by the Wright State academic program to which the student is applying.

B. Academic preparation for the declared field of study that is acceptable to the graduate program concerned (degree program candidates).

06

C. Proof that the applicant has the minimum undergraduate grade point average (GPA) established by the Graduate School for an admission category.

1.50 Admission Procedure for Graduate Degree Status

A. Students submit a completed graduate admission application to the Graduate School. Applications for admission and all supporting credentials, including test scores if required, should be received at least four weeks before registration for the quarter in which the students wish to begin graduate study. Some programs require applications to be submitted substantially earlier; please consult with the individual program office for any program-specific deadlines.

B. Students request the registrars of all colleges or universities previously attended to send one official transcript directly to the Graduate School (official transcripts become the property of Wright State University and will not be returned to the applicant). If courses from one university/college appear on another university's/college's transcript, students are still required to submit an official transcript from the college where they originally completed the course work.

C. Students pay a non-refundable $40 graduate application fee. Applicants who are McNair Scholars or who are in the NIH-funded PREP (Post-baccalaureate Research Education Program) program will have this fee waived. Such students must apply with a paper application or emailed PDF application form, and cannot use the on-line application system.

D. Students submit appropriate test scores and/or documents such as letters of recommendation, statement of purpose, or statement of goals and objectives to satisfy particular program or departmental requirements. Applicants must also meet any additional requirements stipulated by a particular program.

E. Students submit a completed and signed provisional memo of understanding for students requesting and/or being recommended by an academic program for provisional admission pending subsequent submission of their academic credentials. The memo, which must be on file in the Graduate School, details the conditions under which the students are being admitted. The final decision to admit students into provisional status is made by the Graduate School after reviewing the recommendations from the academic programs.

F. The Graduate School reviews the completed admissions file, calculates the students' total undergraduate grade point average as well as a grade point average for any graduate work undertaken, and sends copies of the application and supporting documents to the appropriate program official for review and an admission recommendation.

G. The program reviews the students' academic credentials and sends an admission recommendation to the Graduate School. 5

H. The Associate Director of Graduate Admissions reviews the recommendation and the applicants' academic credentials to see if the Graduate School admissions requirements have been met.

I. The Associate Director of Graduate Admissions notifies the applicants by letter in regard to any decisions regarding their admission.

Good afternoon Ms. Bailey,

I am writing to forward my GMAT confirmation for Mr. Evans as well as inquire if there is any documentation I can request to show that I have a provisional letter in transit, just to show something to Wright Patterson Air Force Base tomorrow morning. If not, I understand, it is extremely short notice. If there is anything else you need, please do not hesitate to email or call (513) 290-7930, thank you very much for your help.

Respectfully,

Bem D. Itiavkase

Good afternoon Ms. Johnson, I have been trying to drop one of my classes for about a month and have been unsuccessful. I was unable to get into my registration due to the block on my account. What, if anything can I do to drop this class?

Dear Bem,

I have received your admission decision back from the Raj Soin College of Business. After you complete the Spring 2013 Semester and if your cumulative graduate GPA is a 3.25 or higher at then end of that term we will admit you to the MBA Program with a Conditional Admission.

Conditional admission means that at the end of your next nine hours of graduate work after being admitted conditionally your cumulative graduate GPA must be a 3.0 or higher in order to continue in the MBA program. If you fail to meet this requirement you will be dismissed from the Graduate School.

Please let me know when your Spring 2013 term grades have been posted and I will complete your admission process at that time.

Sincerely,

Amy Johnson
