On February 11, 2015, plaintiff/counter defendant TransAmerica Building Company, Inc., (TransAmerica) filed "objections to the referee's decision denying TransAmerica's motion to separate." TransAmerica is challenging the referee's January 28, 2015 order wherein the referee denied TransAmerica's motion to order a separate trial as to the third-party complaint filed by defendant/counter plaintiff/third-party plaintiff, Ohio School Facilities Commission. The court notes that in its "objection," TransAmerica provides additional evidence that was not before the referee on the original motion. Therefore, the court construes TransAmerica's "objection" to be a renewed motion to order a separate trial pursuant to Civ.R. 14(A). Inasmuch as the motion contains additional information that the referee has not yet considered, the referee shall rule on such a motion.

ENTRY
